Big Data for Global History: The Transformative Promise of Digital Humanities
Joris van Eijnatten, Toine Pieters and Jaap Verheul

More references:
- WAHSP: http://www.clarin.nl/node/245
- BILAND : http://www.biland.nl/
- the project Translantis and its tool Texcavator: http://translantis.wp.hum.uu.nl/ and http://dev.wahsp.nl/texcavator/ (login needed)
- Current international and national programmes such as Digging into Data and CATCH-plus: http://www.diggingintodata.org/ and http://www.catchplus.nl/
- the digital newspaper archive of the National Library of the Netherlands (Koninklijke Bibliotheek): http://kranten.kb.nl/
- the National Library of the Netherlands (KB): http://www.kb.nl/
- the British Library: http://www.bl.uk/
- the US Library of Congress: http://www.loc.gov/index.html
- the European follow-up HERA project 'Asymmetrical Encounters: E-Humanity Approaches to Reference Cultures in Europe, 1815-1992 (ASYMENC): http://www.heranet.info/hera-jrp-ii-funded-projects